Gomez Anna

8030003025

was admitted to Fatima Senior Secondary School, Bwiam, in September 2007. After three years, she has completed Grade 12 and sat the West African Senior School Certificate Examination in the following subjects:

Core

English Language
Mathematics
Biology
Agricultural Science
Christian Religious Knowledge

Elective

Geography
Chemistry
Physics
Economics

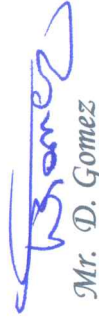

During her years at school, Anna maintained an excellent record of attendance and punctuality both at regular daily classes and compulsory afternoon studies. She is of average intelligence which she coupled with a keen interest in her studies and as a result gained regular promotion in all of the school's terminal examinations.

Of a quiet and friendly disposition, she interacted well with his mentors and colleagues. She was polite, respectful and co-operative. Her conduct in school never gave cause for any form of disciplinary sanction. She was appointed Head Girl and carried out her duties to the best of her ability.

In extra curricular activities she participated in the events organized during the Creation Week. She was a member of the Young Christian Students (YCS).

A willing volunteer, Anna was always relied upon to carry out school functions. She is capable of rendering satisfactory service to her future employer.

Anna Gomez is highly recommended.
