RECOMMENDATION: TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Sana Chann enrolled in the above school in September 1987 and left in June 1992. He was placed in Form I and wrote his General Certificate of Examinations (S.C. and G.C.E 'O' Levels) in Form V. His examination subjects were English Language, Mathematics, Economics, Agricultural Science, Geography, Health Science, and Chemistry.

During his stay in the school, Sana proved to be a diligent and obedient student. He was regular and punctual in school. He was an outstanding student among his classmates. He demonstrated very good leadership qualities when he served as class prefect from Form I through to Form V. He was a very honest student and executed his responsibilities without fear or favour.

He combined very well his academic responsibilities with extra - curricular activities in sports. He won prizes for various field events in athletics and was also a very active member of the school football team.

Sana showed maximum respect for authority and he worked very hard with his teachers in maintaining discipline in the school. His fellow students admired him and always co-operated with him.

He was a promising student and I wish him well in all his endeavours.
