TESTIMONIAL RE: OUSMAN KEBBEH

Ousman was admitted into Grade 10 at Charles Jow Memorial Academy (now 22nd July Academy) in September 2011 to pursue a three – year Senior Secondary School course in General Arts. He sat to the West African Senior School Certificate Examination in April / May 2014.

Ousman was hardworking average student who made steady progress throughout the course and improved his performance considerably towards the end of the programme.

His record in terms of attendance and punctuality was impressive; he was well-behaved and he related well with his teachers and peers.

Ousman has great potentials for further training and should be able to do well if given the opportunity.

I therefore recommend him to any institution of higher learning or to any employer who may require his services.
