Reference Letter for Mbajalang Fofana

This is to certify that Ms. Mbajalang Fofana served as an employee of The Nova Scotia-Gambia Association. She started since February 2016, when she newly completed secondary education. As one of the most outstanding student peer educator, Mbajalang was selected from her High School to join NSGA's Peer Health Education Program's Community Engagement Team as Field Worker. Since then until her voluntary resignation in February 2017 to start a Nursing Studies program, Ms. Fofana earned promotion to various positions in field work, and team leadership. She resigned from the post of a Community Health Education Troupers and Trainer, overseeing the organisation's program implementation in one of the administrative regions of The Gambia.

During this period, I had found Ms. Fofana to be a young woman of exemplary character with determination to always perform well. Mbajalang is a good listener with unqualified abilities and astuteness especially in the area of community engagement, public speaking, drama acting and playwriting, program coordination ranging from training, data collection, and field staff/team leadership. She has the ability to complete competing priorities within time and does so with efficacy and effectiveness throughout.

She continues to demonstrate respect to authority and worked harmoniously with the rest of the Staff of NSGA and partners. In the area of personal disposition, Mbajalang Fofana has proven to be a self-made person featuring many qualities of a good model to be emulated. She is always responsive to the plight and concerns of others and has a very strong commitment to serve humanity.

I wish therefore to unreservedly recommend Mbajalang for any job placement or further studies endeavour she wishes to undertake. There is no doubt that she has the talent and expertise to cope with the rigors of Nursing and General Health studies and any other career path if given the opportunity. The organisation has high regard for Ms. Fofana and expects her to share the experience she gained from Nova Scotia-Gambia Association, as part of his development work and leadership job experience.

Yours sincerely,
