RECOMMENDATION

Hamat Jaw has attended an Intensive Foundation Course in General Nursing from 18th January 2018 to 12th September 2018.

He has been found to be focus, hardworking, punctual, knowledgeable and well discipline and very much interested in nursing. He always make sure that work is done and accomplished at the right time. He is a promising nurse and can cope in any situation that he happens to find himself.

In view of the above, I recommend him to any employer who needs his services or any nursing institution to further his education. I have no iota of doubt that he can perform to the best of his ability.

Whilst counting on your usual support, please accept the assurances of my highest consideration and esteem.

Yours Sincerely
